

BLAMO CLOSING

BLAMO INTERNET SALES

The 10 Steps to the Internet Sale

The complete BLAMO system for turning internet leads into appointments—from first inquiry to walk-in.

The BLAMO Internet Sales System

Internet buyers compare vehicles, prices, and dealerships before you meet. This guide gives you a practical, honest sequence for responding quickly, building trust, creating value, and making the appointment easy.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

Work one step per shift. Say scripts out loud, adapt brackets to the real customer, and never sound automated.

THE HONESTY RULE

Never say something untrue. Verify availability, pricing, incentives, timing, and vehicle details. If you do not know, say what you will verify and when you will follow up.

7-DAY PRACTICE PLAN

- Day 1: under-five-minute response.
- Day 2: three rapport messages.
- Day 3: one 45-second video.
- Day 4: answer a price question honestly.
- Day 5: practice the two-choice ask.
- Day 6: confirmation and value follow-up.
- Day 7: role-play five objections.

The 10 Steps

01 Respond in Under 5 Minutes

GOAL

Call immediately. Send a personalized text. Follow with an email. Be first.

THE PROCESS

Call immediately. Send a personalized text. Follow with an email. Be first.

WHAT TO SAY

Hi [name], this is [you] at [dealership]. I saw your request on the [vehicle]. I'm checking the details now. Would you prefer a quick call, or should I text the information here?

THE COMMON MISTAKE

Using a generic response, skipping the customer's question, or applying pressure instead of listening.

CHECKLIST

- Use the customer's name and exact vehicle.
- Give clear, truthful information.
- Record the next action.
- Keep the conversation human.

PUT IT INTO PRACTICE TODAY

Practice this step once with a real lead or a teammate, then write down one improvement.

Next up: continue to the next step in the owner's sequence.

02 Build Rapport

GOAL

Don't jump into pricing. Thank them, use their name, mention the exact vehicle, and ask a simple question. People buy from people—not automated responses.

THE PROCESS

Don't jump into pricing. Thank them, use their name, mention the exact vehicle, and ask a simple question. People buy from people—not automated responses.

WHAT TO SAY

Thanks for reaching out, [name]. You were looking at the [vehicle]. What caught your eye about that one?

THE COMMON MISTAKE

Using a generic response, skipping the customer's question, or applying pressure instead of listening.

CHECKLIST

- Use the customer's name and exact vehicle.
- Give clear, truthful information.
- Record the next action.
- Keep the conversation human.

PUT IT INTO PRACTICE TODAY

Practice this step once with a real lead or a teammate, then write down one improvement.

Next up: continue to the next step in the owner's sequence.

03 Send a Personalized Video

GOAL

Keep it under 60 seconds. Show their vehicle, your face, their name if possible, the dealership, and a friendly smile. Authenticity—not perfection—is the goal.

THE PROCESS

Keep it under 60 seconds. Show their vehicle, your face, their name if possible, the dealership, and a friendly smile. Authenticity—not perfection—is the goal.

WHAT TO SAY

Hey [name]! This is [you] at [dealership]. Thanks for reaching out about the [vehicle]. Here's the exact vehicle. One benefit is [benefit]. I'd love to show it to you—today at [time] or tomorrow at [time]?

THE COMMON MISTAKE

Using a generic response, skipping the customer's question, or applying pressure instead of listening.

CHECKLIST

- Use the customer's name and exact vehicle.
- Give clear, truthful information.
- Record the next action.
- Keep the conversation human.

PUT IT INTO PRACTICE TODAY

Practice this step once with a real lead or a teammate, then write down one improvement.

Next up: continue to the next step in the owner's sequence.

04 Answer Questions

GOAL

Don't avoid questions. If they ask for pricing, answer honestly while keeping the conversation moving.

THE PROCESS

Don't avoid questions. If they ask for pricing, answer honestly while keeping the conversation moving.

WHAT TO SAY

Absolutely. I'll make sure you receive every available rebate and incentive. Before I do, let me ask two quick questions so I don't miss anything you're eligible for.

THE COMMON MISTAKE

Using a generic response, skipping the customer's question, or applying pressure instead of listening.

CHECKLIST

- Use the customer's name and exact vehicle.
- Give clear, truthful information.
- Record the next action.
- Keep the conversation human.

PUT IT INTO PRACTICE TODAY

Practice this step once with a real lead or a teammate, then write down one improvement.

Next up: continue to the next step in the owner's sequence.

05 Create Value

GOAL

Become their advisor. Help with trade values, financing, leasing vs. buying, warranty coverage, fuel economy, and ownership costs. Teach instead of selling.

THE PROCESS

Become their advisor. Help with trade values, financing, leasing vs. buying, warranty coverage, fuel economy, and ownership costs. Teach instead of selling.

WHAT TO SAY

I can help you compare those options. Are you thinking about keeping the vehicle for several years, or keeping flexibility?

THE COMMON MISTAKE

Using a generic response, skipping the customer's question, or applying pressure instead of listening.

CHECKLIST

- Use the customer's name and exact vehicle.
- Give clear, truthful information.
- Record the next action.
- Keep the conversation human.

PUT IT INTO PRACTICE TODAY

Practice this step once with a real lead or a teammate, then write down one improvement.

Next up: continue to the next step in the owner's sequence.

06 Ask for Appointment

GOAL

Always ask. “Would today at 5:45 or tomorrow at 10:15 work better?” Two choices create momentum.

THE PROCESS

Always ask. “Would today at 5:45 or tomorrow at 10:15 work better?” Two choices create momentum.

WHAT TO SAY

I’d love to show it to you in person. Would today at 5:45 or tomorrow at 10:15 work better?

THE COMMON MISTAKE

Using a generic response, skipping the customer’s question, or applying pressure instead of listening.

CHECKLIST

- Use the customer’s name and exact vehicle.
- Give clear, truthful information.
- Record the next action.
- Keep the conversation human.

PUT IT INTO PRACTICE TODAY

Practice this step once with a real lead or a teammate, then write down one improvement.

Next up: continue to the next step in the owner’s sequence.

07 Confirm Appointment

GOAL

Send appointment time, address, your name, map link, parking instructions, and another short confirmation video if appropriate. Reduce uncertainty.

THE PROCESS

Send appointment time, address, your name, map link, parking instructions, and another short confirmation video if appropriate. Reduce uncertainty.

WHAT TO SAY

You're set for [day] at [time]. I'm [name] at [address]. Here's the map: [link]. Park [instruction] and text me when you arrive.

THE COMMON MISTAKE

Using a generic response, skipping the customer's question, or applying pressure instead of listening.

CHECKLIST

- Use the customer's name and exact vehicle.
- Give clear, truthful information.
- Record the next action.
- Keep the conversation human.

PUT IT INTO PRACTICE TODAY

Practice this step once with a real lead or a teammate, then write down one improvement.

Next up: continue to the next step in the owner's sequence.

08 Stay Top of Mind

GOAL

Send value: walkaround video, feature highlight, testimonial, trade estimate, or financing update. Stay helpful without becoming pushy.

THE PROCESS

Send value: walkaround video, feature highlight, testimonial, trade estimate, or financing update. Stay helpful without becoming pushy.

WHAT TO SAY

I wanted to send one useful detail before we meet: [value]. Reply here if a question comes up.
Looking forward to seeing you.

THE COMMON MISTAKE

Using a generic response, skipping the customer's question, or applying pressure instead of listening.

CHECKLIST

- Use the customer's name and exact vehicle.
- Give clear, truthful information.
- Record the next action.
- Keep the conversation human.

PUT IT INTO PRACTICE TODAY

Practice this step once with a real lead or a teammate, then write down one improvement.

Next up: continue to the next step in the owner's sequence.

09 Master Internet Objections

GOAL

Prepare for “I’m still shopping,” “What’s your best price?” “I need to talk to my spouse,” “I’m waiting,” and “I’m just looking.” Confidence comes from preparation.

THE PROCESS

Prepare for “I’m still shopping,” “What’s your best price?” “I need to talk to my spouse,” “I’m waiting,” and “I’m just looking.” Confidence comes from preparation.

WHAT TO SAY

I understand. What are you comparing so I can help you compare it accurately?

THE COMMON MISTAKE

Using a generic response, skipping the customer’s question, or applying pressure instead of listening.

CHECKLIST

- Use the customer’s name and exact vehicle.
- Give clear, truthful information.
- Record the next action.
- Keep the conversation human.

PUT IT INTO PRACTICE TODAY

Practice this step once with a real lead or a teammate, then write down one improvement.

Next up: continue to the next step in the owner’s sequence.

10 Close Before They Walk In

GOAL

Before arrival they should know your face and name, trust your expertise, feel comfortable, and be excited to meet you. Your goal: “I’m here to see [name].”

THE PROCESS

Before arrival they should know your face and name, trust your expertise, feel comfortable, and be excited to meet you. Your goal: “I’m here to see [name].”

WHAT TO SAY

I’ll be ready at [time]. We’ll start with the [vehicle], answer questions, and take it from there—no surprises. Text me when you pull in.

THE COMMON MISTAKE

Using a generic response, skipping the customer’s question, or applying pressure instead of listening.

CHECKLIST

- Use the customer’s name and exact vehicle.
- Give clear, truthful information.
- Record the next action.
- Keep the conversation human.

PUT IT INTO PRACTICE TODAY

Practice this step once with a real lead or a teammate, then write down one improvement.

Next up: continue to the next step in the owner’s sequence.

The BLAMO Video Formula

A personalized video is a repeatable system, not just “send a video.” Keep it under 60 seconds; authenticity beats perfection.

6 STEPS TO EVERY PERSONALIZED VIDEO

- 1. Personalize Immediately (5-10 sec): use their name in the first seconds.
- 2. Introduce Yourself: smile and say you are their product specialist.
- 3. Show Their Vehicle: front, wheels, interior, engine when relevant, and features.
- 4. Give One Valuable Reason to Buy: choose one or two benefits that matter.
- 5. Invite Them In: offer two real appointment choices.
- 6. Finish with Confidence: end warm and genuine.

THE BLAMO 45-SECOND FORMULA

5 sec greeting · 10 sec introduction · 15 sec vehicle · 10 sec one feature · 5 sec appointment request

9 MOMENTS TO SEND VIDEOS

- Immediately after lead
- After phone contact
- Appointment confirmation
- Day before appointment
- Vehicle arrived
- Trade appraisal
- Financing approval
- Delivery day
- After delivery

VIDEO RULES

- ✓ Smile, good lighting, natural voice, under 60 seconds, name, vehicle, call to action.
- X Don't read, ramble, sound like a commercial, or talk for two minutes.

THE BLAMO RULE

Every lead gets three videos: introduction within 5 minutes; vehicle walkaround same day; appointment confirmation day before or morning of.

THE SIGNATURE 3-3-3 RULE

First 3 seconds: name and introduction. Next 30: vehicle and benefits. Last 3: appointment ask.

Bonus: 7-Day Internet Lead Follow-Up

- Day 1: call, text, email, personalized intro video.
- Day 2: vehicle walkaround video.
- Day 3: testimonial or success story.
- Day 4: trade-in or financing tip.
- Day 5: feature or technology highlight.
- Day 6: inventory update or incentive reminder.
- Day 7: friendly check-in with fresh personalized video.

Quick Reference

10 steps: 1. Respond in Under 5 Minutes · 2. Build Rapport · 3. Send a Personalized Video · 4. Answer Questions · 5. Create Value · 6. Ask for Appointment · 7. Confirm Appointment · 8. Stay Top of Mind · 9. Master Internet Objections · 10. Close Before They Walk In 45-second: 5 greeting · 10 introduction · 15 vehicle · 10 feature · 5 appointment.

3-3-3: first 3 name/introduction · next 30 vehicle/benefits · last 3 appointment ask.

WHERE TO GO NEXT

Explore The Sales Rep Starter Kit for five core closes, The 10 Steps of the Sale for the in-store floor process.

Blamo Closing training is practical, honest, and built for the work in front of you.